Readings for the Following Week
 Fifth Sunday of Easter

TRUE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY

Can you imagine a world such as the one put before us in today's scripture readings? Communities of believers everywhere would support and encourage one another and be identified as Christians by the way they love each other. It would be a world with no tears, no death and mourning, no crying out in pain. "Behold, I make all things new," we hear the Son of God say in the second reading from the book of Revelation (21:5).

Is this world of John's vision only imaginary? Are these faithful followers for whom Jesus prayed only a savior's dream? Today they are put before us a worthy goal. How much closer can we come to this vision of a true Christian community in our lives today?

READINGS

First Reading—Paul and Barnabas reported how God had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles (Acts 14:21-27).

Psalm—I will praise your name forever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).

Second Reading – God's dwelling is with the human race (Revelation 21:1-5a).

Gospel —This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another (John 13:31-33a, 34-35)

Catholic Home Missions:

This week's second collection support Catholic Home Missions and Black and Native American Indians. Gifts from this collection support those areas of the country that are terribly short of priests, sisters and brothers, and helps supply the financial aid needed to operate these parishes. The appeal helps build community within the Church and works for the common goods of Catholics in the United States.

Coffee and Donuts: Next Weekend

Please join your fellow parishioners for our monthly Coffee and Donut gathering on the Rectory Patio after the 7:30am and 10:30am Masses. We will be serving Depoe Bay Coffee. Try a cup and consider purchasing your next pound of coffee from Depoe Bay. They participate in the Fair Trade Coffee Program through Catholic Relief Services. Brochures will available to explain how this program works and how you can help!

Despite the Rain, Boutique was Successful!

The Special Events Committee wishes to thank all the vendors who participated in our 1st Spring Boutique. Though sales were extremely low on Friday and Saturday, Sunday's turnout was great. Our vendors appreciated your patronage and they look forward to returning for our Christmas Boutique! And big thank you to the parishioners who brought in the delicious baked goodies. Our Bake Shop did fairly well. We raffled a beautiful handcrafted "Teapot" Ostrich Egg made and donated by parishioner Shirley Rose. Our winner was Cathy Reuter! Our grand total after expenses (which were very, very minimal) was $734.00. This money will be used towards the renovation of the Large Conference Room.

The Special Events Committee consists of: Barbara O'Rourke, Sabine Kovich, Dawn Fielding, Del McGiveney, Bob & Rose Ford, Manuel & Robert Ferreira, Lupe Roman, Susan Leonesio, Fr. Mario and Fr. Dare. If anyone is interested in being part of this fun group, then please call Susan at the Parish Office.

May Crowning of Mary

On May 6th at the 10:30am Mass we will crown Mary, our Lord's Mother with a wreath of fresh flowers to honor her. The children of our parish are invited to participate in the procession as well as any adult parishioner. Any parishioner who would like to donate flowers for the ceremony are welcomed to leave flowers after the 7:30am Mass or bring them before the 10:30am Mass. Please call Maria Fregosi at 889-9401 to participate or if you have questions.

Hispanic 1st Reconciliation

Our students of St. Joseph Hispanic Religious Education will be making their First Reconciliation this weekend after the 12:30pm Mass. The children have been learning about our Lord's mercy and forgiveness for our sins. Please pray for these children as they continue their journey towards receiving their First Holy Communion and Confirmation! If your child was not able to make their First Reconciliation this weekend, Fr. Mario will be available next Sunday, May 6th after the 12:30pm Mass.

"The world and its enticement are passing away. But whoever does the will of God remains forever."

Treasures From Our Tradition

The French Revolution swept the church away in an astonishing way, stripping the nation of every possible vestige of the faith not merely shuttering churches, but using them as staging areas for pagan raves and romps. While millions of faithful simply went underground and hung on for the ride, even the seven-day week was demolished along with the names of the months. What emerged from the chaos was the Napoleonic Code of 1792 governing church life, and therefore marriage law in France, French Canada, and elsewhere. The code makes civil marriage mandatory for all citizens.

In practice, when the faithful marry, they go first to the City Hall. There, the mayor performs the civil marriage, usually accompanied by a patriotic speech about the duties of the citizen, particularly in the rearing of children. Then, typically after a lunch, everyone goes off to change into more festive attire for the wedding liturgy, featuring consent, the exchange of rings, and the nuptial blessing. Sadly, a minority of citizens today celebrate even the civil form of the rite, and a fraction of those continue on to the church. For those who do celebrate the liturgy of marriage, however, there is near certainty that the spouses are active worshipers, and that they will later present their children for baptism.

Father Corapi is here! ! !

Well, here on videotape at least! And who hasn't heard of Father Corapi - truly one of the most knowledgeable and dynamic speakers in the Church today (aside from Fr. Dare and Fr. Mario, of course)!

Father Corapi will guide us on an in-depth examination of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the divinely-inspired summary of our glorious Deposit of Faith, as preserved for us by Holy Mother Church. John Paul II the Great referred to the CCC as an "authoritative exposition of the one perennial apostolic faith", and a "sure norm for teaching the faith", (cf Fidei Depositum, no.4), and urged that it be "known and shared by everyone".

Join us every Monday night at 7:00pm (RCIA time) - all spring and summer long - in the Large Conference Room for this exciting series. All are welcome - especially our newest Catholics, non-Catholics, and older kids looking for something truly "counter-cultural" to do on Monday nights. Don't miss out!

Noah Mackenroth, Director of Religious Education

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

El primer día de mayo es reconocido como el día mundial del trabajo y conmemora seis mártires de Chicago, quienes fueron fusilados en 1886 cuando la policía trató de impedir una pelea campal durante una huelga de obreros. Curiosamente esta fecha no es reconocida por EE.UU. pero sí por muchos países latinoamericanos. En 1954, el Papa Pió XII apoyó los derechos del obrero incluyendo a san José Obrero en el calendario cristiano. Esta fiesta celebra y recuerda la doctrina social de la Iglesia Católica, una doctrina que insiste que: "El mensaje cristiano no aparta a las personas de la edificación del mundo, ni les lleva a despreocuparse del bien de sus semejantes, sino que les impone esta colaboración como un deber" (Guadium et Spes 34).

Es junto conmemorar a san José como obrero en el día mundial del trabajador, porque este santo varón nos recuerda que al trabajar uno colabora con Dios en la creación continua del mundo y de la humanidad. El trabajo no sólo es derecho humano es una responsabilidad que se debe tomar con amor al prójimo.
